

I support XM as it is now...leave it alone. They are doing a great job bringing information such as the weather and traffic conditions to the public. Even though I don't live in an area that is broadcast I support the right of XM to bring it to who do. I have 2 radios and listen to them every day and believe that we have the right to listen to whatever we choose, whenever we want to. Keep up the good work XM!!